Directions to Mothers Which Every Boy and Girl Who Does Into the Water Should Have—Fits and Misfits in Animals Clothing

If all animals and fowls are born with their clothing ready made, it seems strange that so many of them are supplied with pockets. Other animals as provided with practical conveniences, but their wearing apparel is not.

The horse has a trousseau and a tailor hard with his tail, but where is the pocket for a handkerchief? Think of the cow, the sheep, the dog, the hog, the rabbit, the squirrel, the fox, the bear, the deer, the elephant, the camel, the lion, the tiger, the monkey, the giraffe, the kangaroo, the rhinoceros, the hippopotamus, the ox, the goat, the mule, the donkey, the zebra, the antelope, the buffalo, the ostrich, the eagle, the hawk, the owl, the crow, the robin, the sparrow, the canary, the parrot, the peacock, the turkey, the goose, the duck, the swan, the pelican, the flamingo, the stork, the crane, the heron, the snipe, the woodcock, the quail, the partridge, the pheasant, the grouse, the prairie chicken, the wild turkey, the wild goose, the wild duck, the wild swan, the wild pelican, the wild flamingo, the wild stork, the wild crane, the wild heron, the wild snipe, the wild woodcock, the wild quail, the wild partridge, the wild pheasant, the wild grouse, the wild
